IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
12 Plaintiff,
13 v.
14 CHRISTIAN CLAUSTRO,
15 Defendant.

CASE NO. 1:22-MJ-00197
STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE
TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT;
FINDINGS AND ORDER
DATE: April 14, 2023
TIME: 2:00 p.m.

17 This case is set for a preliminary hearing on April 14, 2023. The parties agree and stipulate to 18 continue the preliminary hearing until May 5, 2023. Defense counsel has continued to be engaged in 19 discussions and further investigation, and needs additional time to conclude that process.

20 On May 26, 2021, the Court issued General Order 631, which provided for a reopening of the 21 courthouse in June 2021, recognized the continued public health emergency, continued to authorize 22 video or teleconference court appearances in various cases, and noted the court's continued ability under 23 the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act (the "Act") to continue trials and 24 other matters, excluding time under the Act. On June 27, 2022, the Court issued General Order 652,
25 which "authorized the use of videoconference and teleconference technology in certain criminal
26 proceedings under the in the Eastern District of California." This and previous General Orders highlight
27 and were entered to address public health concerns related to COVID-19. Pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(c)
28 and (d), a preliminary hearing must be held "no later than 14 days after initial appearance if the

1 defendant is in custody,” unless the defendant consents and there is a “showing of good cause”, or if the
 2 defendant does not consent and there is a “showing that extraordinary circumstances exist and justice
 3 requires the delay.” Here, the defendant consents and there is good cause.

4 Although the General Orders address the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has 5 emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act’s end-of-justice provision “counteract[s] substantive
 6 openendedness with procedural strictness,” “demand[ing] on-the-record findings” in a particular case.
 7 Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). “[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no
 8 exclusion under” § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 9 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a
 10 judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record “either orally 11 or in writing”).

12 Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory
 13 and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, 617, 631, 652 and 662 (among others) require specific 14 supplementation. Ends-of-justice continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such 15 continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh
 16 the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).
 17 Moreover, no such period is excludable unless “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either
 18 orally or in writing, its reason or finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of such 19 continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

20 The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code
 21 T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, 22 natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such 23 circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance
 24 following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court
 25 recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767-68; see also United 26 States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time following the 27 September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency). The coronavirus is posing a 28 similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules.

In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-justice exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4). If continued, this Court should designate a new date for the preliminary hearing. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and through defendant's counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. By previous order, this matter was set for preliminary hearing on April 14, 2023.
2. By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the preliminary hearing until May 5, 2023, at 2:00 p.m. and to exclude time between April 14, 2023, and May 5, 2023, under Local Code T4.

3. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

- a) The parties are discussing and conducting further investigation into pre-indictment matters, and need additional time to conclude that process.
- b) The government represents that discovery consists of reports, and that an initial dissemination of discovery has been provided to defense, consisting of National Park Service Reports and the defendant's criminal history.
- c) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with her client, conduct further investigation, and discuss charges with the government. Defense has continued to investigate various issues related to the facts and a resolution since the last continuance was granted.
- d) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny him the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.
- e) The government does not object to the continuance.
- f) Pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(c) and (d), a preliminary hearing must be held "no later than 14 days after initial appearance if the defendant is in custody." unless the defendant

1 consents and there is a “showing of good cause”. Here, the defendant consents and there is good
2 cause as set forth herein.

3 g) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the
4 case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in an indictment or trial
5 within the original dates prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

6 h) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161,
7 et seq., within which an indictment must be filed and within which a trial must commence, the
8 time period of April 14, 2023 to May 5, 2023, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18
9 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4] because it results from a continuance granted by 10 the Court at defendant’s request on the basis of the Court’s finding that the ends of justice served
11 by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy
12 indictment/trial.

13 4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 14 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which an 15 indictment must be filed and a trial must commence.

16 IT IS SO STIPULATED.

24 FINDINGS AND ORDER

25 Having reviewed the parties Stipulation and proposed findings, the Court finds the following:

26 a) The parties are discussing and conducting further investigation into pre-indictment
27 matters, and need additional time to conclude that process. Defense is in the process of retaining
28 an expert to assist and the expert will require time to reach an opinion and produce such opinion

1 in a format capable of sharing for evaluation by both parties.

2 b) The government represents that discovery consists of reports, and that an initial
3 dissemination of discovery has been provided to defense, consisting of National Park Service
4 Reports and the defendant's criminal history.

5 c) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with her client, conduct
6 further investigation, and discuss charges with the government. Defense has continued to 7 investigate various issues related to the facts and a resolution since the last continuance was 8 granted.

9 d) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested
10 continuance would deny him the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into 11 account the exercise of due diligence.

12 e) The government does not object to the continuance.

13 f) Pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 5.1(c) and (d), a preliminary hearing must be held "no later
14 than 14 days after initial appearance if the defendant is in custody," unless the defendant
15 consents and there is a "showing of good cause". Here, the defendant consents and there is good
16 cause as set forth herein.

17 g) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the
18 case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in an indictment or trial
19 within the original dates prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

20 h) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161,
21 et seq., within which an indictment must be filed and within which a trial must commence, the
22 time period of April 14, 2023 to May 5, 2023, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18
23 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at 24 defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking 25 such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy
26 indictment/trial.

27 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the preliminary hearing scheduled for April 14, 2023 at 2:00
28 p.m. is continued to May 5, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the time between April

1 14, 2023 and May 5, 2023 is excluded pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) because it results
2 from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's request on the basis of the Court's finding that
3 the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the 4 defendant in a speedy indictment/trial.
